1. Claims 1-14 have been allowed.

REASON FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reason for allowance:

The cited prior art taken alone or in combination fail to teach, in combination with the other claimed limitations, a method of modifying a program stored in a nonvolatile memory in a microcontroller, specifically, the second program replacing the disabled part of the first program and an interrupt-handling routine for redirecting program execution from the disabled part of the first program to the second program, and the processing unit executes the first program responds to the interrupt signal by executing the interrupt-handling routine, is thereby redirected to the second program, executes the second program, and then returns to execution of the first program, as recited in the independent claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments of Statement of Reason for Allowance".

Conclusion

3. The prior art made or record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
